The ex-glamour model was jokingly quizzed about drug-taking after her wild behaviour.

Katie Price stared at a woman's private parts on stage

KATIE Price was asked if she's on crack cocaine after staring at a naked woman's privates while judging Porn Idol.

Our exclusive footage shows the 40-year-old throwing her head back laughing as she was jokingly quizzed about drug-taking by drag queen Son of a Tutu.

Katie had raised eyebrows when she got up close and personal with one of the strippers on stage at London's Heaven nightclub last night.

She was within an inch of the woman's private parts as she clung to a dance pole.

Afterwards, Son of a Tutu said into the mic to crowds: "I just don't know what the hell it is, but Katie Price is on.

"I want some of what you're on, honey. I want some. It's like you book Katie Price and it ends up Honey G on crack cocaine."

Katie infamously rapped "I love coke" in September last year during a wild night out in Majorca.

She was snapped next to a bag of cocaine on a table top and seen slumped to the floor after partying with two men she met in a bar.

In the shocking footage she makes a cringe-worthy attempt at a rap, trilling: "I love the coke, you know, it gets me in the air."

Soon afterwards The Sun on Sunday revealed she had checked into rehab suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder.

The mum-of-five was treated at the Priory after family urged her to get help following the drink and drug binges.

PTSD - caused by a difficult year with her mum's illness and third divorce - was blamed for her wild behaviour.

Katie's wild behaviour returned last night - but the sober star laughed off the joke that she was on cocaine and wasn't even seen boozing.

She flashed her surgery-scarred boobs and got her nipple licked by drag queen Baga Chipz.

The mum-of-five let her hair down as she made the most of her night out.

She posed provocatively as one of the stars licked her nipple for the cameras.

The 40-year-old then went to kiss the lookalike drag queen whose long blonde hair matched Katie's.

She also treated crowds to a one-off performance of Aladdin's A Whole New World, which she famously dueted with husband Peter Andre in 2006.
