Donald Trump deserves all credit, says Israeli PM Netanyahu on Soleimani killing

Jerusalem: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said on Friday that US President Donald Trump "deserves all the credit for acting swiftly, forcefully and decisively" following the killing of Iran's top general earlier on Friday. Netanyahu added that Israel stands with Washington in its "just struggle for peace, security, and self-defence".

Netanyahu is cutting short a visit to Greece and returning home to follow "ongoing developments" after the killing of Iran's Major General Qassem Soleimani. The Israeli army has ordered a ski resort on Mount Hermon, on the Israel-controlled Golan Heights, to close. It took no other immediate precautions.

Burning vehicles and deserted roads: Photos, videos from US strike in Baghdad that killed Qasem Soleimani

This photo released by the Iraqi Prime Minister Press Office shows a burning vehicle at the Baghdad International Airport following an airstrike in Baghdad, Iraq, early Friday, Jan. 3, 2020. The Pentagon said Thursday that the U.S. military has killed Gen. Qassem Soleimani, the head of Iran's elite Quds Force, at the direction of President Donald Trump.
