Patna (Bihar): Two youths were arrested for alleged gang rape of a 45-year-old widow at their rented accommodation in Malahi Pakdi area under Kankarbagh police station in Patna on Friday. The arrested youths were identified as Sujeet Kumar (22) and Kaushal Kumar (23). Both belong to Noorsarai in Nalanda district and have been forwarded to jail, Kankarbagh police station SHO Ajay Kumar said.

“It was Sujeet who had invited her to their accommodation in the name of celebrating his birthday party,” Ajay said. He said the victim, a mother of three children, reached their residence Wednesday night after which they raped her.

“On Thursday morning, she reached the Kankarbagh police station and narrated the incident. An FIR was registered on her written complaint against Sujeet and Kaushal,” he said.

Her medical examination was conducted on Friday and her statement would be recorded before a judicial magistrate by Monday. The SHO said the victim’s clothes were seized for forensic analysis.
