Himachal Pradesh (India): At least 7 people were arrested for gangraping a woman in Himachal Pradesh. The incident was reported from Kangra, where the woman was first offered a lift on their vehicle on Thursday and was later gangraped.

According to the details, the 32-year-old woman was waiting for a bus at the Banoi area, when the accused men offered her lift and possibly took her to a poultry farm in Salol where she was gang-raped. She was later taken to a hotel in Mcleodganj and raped again.

Commenting on the incident, the police have said the victim was taken from the farm to a hotel in Mcleodganj where the accused took turns to rape her again.

The victim is married and a mother of three children. She is living separately from her husband for the last five years, the police revealed.

A case has been registered at Gagaj police station on the basis of a complaint filed by the victim, they said.

Police have also arrested the hotel owner in Mcleodganj where the victim was taken.
