As England started to reopen today I opted for a few pints in my local pub rather than the gym.

But seeing these photos of 53-year-old David Guetta with bulging abs, I'm starting to think I could have put my time to better use.

The DJ looked in great shape on a day out at the beach in Miami at the weekend.

He was with his stunning actress girlfriend Jessica Ledon, who is 25 years his junior.

Regardless of the age difference, they certainly look good together.
